

Buck, Ruth - Relation

Transcribed by Prof. Ross W. Beales, Jr. from images available on the Digital Commonwealth:

<https://www.digitalcommonwealth.org/search/commonwealth:z316s983p>

In the begining God made man holy and upright but he Sined and fell and became as miserable as he [word struck through] was righteous, [word struck through] ^{^Thus} we ~~be-Came~~ oregenely be Came Sinners: But threw the grate goodness of God he hath found out a way for our recovery for he has Sent his only begoten Son into the world to Save Lost Sinners. [I think I am hartily willing to Submit to Gods Laws and Commands.]^X I have bin a fraid that I have bin Such a Sinner that God would Cast me off * but threw ^{^the precious Blood of Jesus} Christ I hope I Shall find marcy.
^{^For} I ^{^wd} humbly take Encurregment from w^t God ^{^has graciously} Sayd, Come unto me all ye that Labour and are heavey Laden and, I will giv you rest: and a gain ^{^in} Isaiah 55 Chapter, 1st Verse ~~first~~ Ho, Every one that thirsteth Come ye to the worters and he that hath no mony, Come ye, buy and eat, year Cum buy wine and milk with ^{^out} mony and without

Price.^x I Desire to bless God that I was borne in a Land of Light where I have an opper-tunity to hear his holy word I Desire to bless ~~God~~ Gods holy name [several words struck through] that I was born of releg^{io}us Parents that gave me up to God in baptisem [^]in my enfency and gave me good education.^x I have had a Desire to Cum up to my Duty but I being So prone to Sin I Dearst n[torn] Venter but I take encuragement in Isaiah 55 Chap 6 Verce Seek the Lord whilst he may be found Call uppon him while he is near –

Ruth Buck

The Confession

&c

of Ruth Buck

1742 – 1834

1834

92

1742