

Aggrieved Tanners, 1777

The Tanners in Westborough, and in the Five neighbouring Towns, whose Selectmen and Committees of Safety, &c. met at said Westborough, to state Prices &c. who think themselves aggrieved by the RESULT of said Select men, and Committees, are desired to meet at the House of Deacon Benjamin Wood, Innholder, in Westborough, on the last Monday of this instant, at 10 o'Clock in the forenoon, then and there to come into some proper and CONSTITUTIONAL measures for obtaining Redress of Grievances.

Upton, March 6th. 1777.

A Well-wisher to the Tanners.

Massachusetts Spy, March 13, 1777, p. [3].