

Stray Colt, 1776

STRAYED away on the 9th of December, from Jacob Broaders of Westborough a light Bay COLT, two years old, not shod, long mane and tail, a natural pacer. Whoever takes up said colt; and returns him to the owner in Westborough, shall have two Dollars reward, and necessary chargers paid by JACOB BROADERS.

N.B. Said Colt was pastured at New-Rutland last summer.

Massachusetts Spy, January 2, 1777, p. [4].